JITEAU'S OLD CLOTHES ON EXHIBITION A Train Robber Confesses—Cat-tic Thieves Hung.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Cabinet meeting to-day was devoted chiefly to the consiperation and discussion of the Chinese Immigration bill. No conclusion was reached with regard to it. The President announced a special session to be held on Monday, when the bill will be disposed of. Wednesday is the last day the President can hold the bill. Senators Miller, of California, and Jones, of Nevada, called on the President after the Cabinet meeting. Both are sure there will be no veto. Others who visited the President think the bill will be returned to Congress with the request that the Congress with the request that the twenty-year chause be reduced to ten years, when he will sign it.

HOW TO ELECT THE PRESIDENT. Representative Updegraff, from the tree on law respecting the election of President and Vice President, introduced a bill in the House to-day as a substitute for the Hewitt bill. It embodies the first nine sections of that bill, with amendments providing that electors shall meet on the first Tuesday n December and that the votes shall Wednesday, and has seven new sec-tions which provide the manner of contesting in court the declaration of elec-tion made by Congress, etc.

EFFECT OF THE POLYGAMY BILL. Mr. Shaughnessy, ex-United States Marshal of Utah, who spent many years there and is thoroughly familiar with the subject, says that the polygamy bill will have but little effect while three-fourths of Utah's population is composed of believers in Mormonism.
Not ten per cent, of them practice polygamy, and but few will be disfranchised. He thinks that a portion of the Commissioners should be from Utah.

The final betting was five to one on the Oxfords. The boats started as the minute past one o'clock. The Cambridges were the first to take water and immediately led by half a boat's length four were ranged. At the soap works, a mile and a half from the starting point, the Oxford crew were in the lead by three lengths. At Hammersmith Bridge, two furlongs further on, they were four lengths in front of the Cambridge crew, and off Cheswick Mall the latter seemed to be fairly done with. Sr. Louis, April 1.—Two laborers, digging a drain on the premises of James F. Haggerty, on Collins street, to-day, unearthed a large pot tightly sealed which proved to contain a large amount of English sovereigns, American silver dollars and a lot of Continental curreacy. The money has not yet been counted, but there is probably from $20,000 to $30,000 of coin which is deted in the last century. The currency bears the date in 1777. The Salt Lake Tribune gives this account of Mormon feeling in Southern Utah: A drummer from Chicago was in Southern Utah when the Edmunds bill passed. He had sold several bills to Mormon merchants, who immediately countermanded their orders, and one of them was so angry that he broke out: "We might as well begin cutting throats at once." The drummer being a gritty fellow, told him he might begin on him right then and there, but the fiery Mormon didn' appear to be in a great hurry about the throat-cutting. The drummer then explained the provisions of the bill, and the brethren cooled down.

Los Angeles county have generally, if not unanimously desired the arrival unty, and some effort has been made to turn the western flow of the current of humanity, and give it a southern instead of a northern trend, so that it would flow into and add to the pros perity and wealth of this part of the

The completion of the railroad from San Francisco to Los Angeles and its extension to Santa Ana and to Colto gave a stimulus to the cultivation of the soil, by furnishing quick and certain transportation to and from San Francisco, and brought travelers and visitors to this county who, throughou the length and breadth of our land, advertised to those whose dwelling were in the cold dark forests and the bleak prairies of the North, in the inconstant and turbulent atmosphere the East, and in the vapor and miasms laden air of the Gulf States the mildness of the climate and fruitfulness of the soil of Los Angeles county.

In consequence of which immigrants came and hamlets and villages like Pasadena, Norwalk, Downey, Florence, Santa Ana and others sprang forth as if by magic from the wilderness, and in a day as it were accounted. in a day, as it were, crowned themselv with prosperity in the present and with an assurance of gladness in the future. So well was the industry of the fru-gal and the labor of husbandmen re-warded, and so well spread abroad was the knowledge of these facts, that th the knowledge of these facts, that the faces of many thrifty and industrious persons in all parts of the land were inquiringly turned hitherward. Nor is it only the tillers of the soil that are looking this way, but mechanics and manufacturers, seeing the present prosperity of this county and the hopefulness of its continuance, are seeking how they may here find a permanent home for themselves and their families.

Surrounded by these gratifying conditions, and with a future so full of promise, an organized body of men, banded together for the common purpose of trampling under foot one of the laws of the State, and preventing its enforcement, has arisen in our its enforcement, has arisen in our midst. It is so strong that it openly encourages those who violate the law, and provides astute counsel, to mislead and bewilder juries, and exempt the law-breakers from penalty.

There is presented at this time two opposing forces, one or the other of which must prevail, and it rests with the people to decide which of the two shall control. The question now in the hands of the people for their determination is not, whether the law is a good or a bad one, but is this: Shall an organized body of men in Los Angeles county openly defy a law and prevent its enforcement, because the law is not in harmony with their taste or their judgment?

law is not in harmony with their taste or their judgment?

Before reaching a decision on this question some preliminary ones should be well considered. Is it desirable to have the population of this county augmented by the settlement of strangers within its borders? What class of transcent will be the wort beneficial. ers within its borders? What class of strangers will be the most beneficial settlers? Which will have the tendency to bring into Los Angeles county as set-tlers the greatest number of the most desirable immigrants? the publication throughout the world that the inhab-itants of this county are such law abid-ing people, and have so high regard for the law, that they do not falter[in the due enforcement of the law of the State, even when that law does not harmonize with the ideas and feelings of many of the inhabitants; or Los Angeles county an organized body of men, which publicly declarer that a law of the State shall not be en-that a law of the State shall not be enforced, and such its numerical strength, or so influential are the numbers of this organization, that a jury cannot be obtained which will convict those who are proven to have openly set the law at defiance and broken it?

This matter must be settled by the people of this country, and it should be settled in that way which will be most beneficial to the county. It is a matter in which merchants, tradesmen, mechanics and laboring men are all interested, because the growth of population and general increase of prosperity in the county opens the way to ulation and general increase of pros-perity in the county opens the way to the greater prosperity of the laboring men, the mechanics and the profession-al men. If the business men of this county believe that their prosperity, and the welfare of the county and that of their families, will be enhanced by the success of those men who are banded together to obstruct the en-forcement of the law, they should aid and encourage this organization. If and encourage this organization. If on the contrary they believe that their personal interests and the welfare of personal interests and the welfare of the country would be enhanced by due observance of the law of the State, and obedience thereto, then they shoul lend all the aid necessary to insure and maintain its supremacy, and the con-viction of those who wilfully disobey it.

It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the folliels are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Hamless and sure in its results, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and itchness of tone it imparts.

Arks's Hars Vacous is colorieus, contains neither oil not day; and will not soil or color white cambric, yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous, imparting an acrosable perfums.
